What a wonderful evening from start to finish. The food was really excellent as was the professional and friendly service from the waiter, Nicky, and his colleague. All in all it was a memorable night. They also do a very good value 2 course and 3 course lunch so we have already booked up for that.

His career in the UK began with the Roux brothers, first at Le Gavroche, then at The Waterside Inn, Bray. He moved La Tante Claire to The Berkeley, then took a break, followed by a wildly successful pop-up at Selfridge's. This led to a return to Knightsbridge with Koffmann's at The Berkeley (closed at the end of 2016).
